No.1261/SEC/F1/2009,

Dt.20-11-2009

PRESS NOTE

The State Election Commission has already issued instructions for appointment of Micro-Observers and for videography inside already identified critical polling stations in order to identify any violators of the law and to proceed against them. Unlawful elements are warned that a strict vigil is maintained and persons resorting to electoral offences are screened and nabbed to strictly enforce the law and see that free and fair polls are ensured. The State Election Commission is determined to see any attempts by outlaws to disrupt free and fair poll are thwarted by all means. Therefore, unscrupulous elements are hereby warned not to indulge in any unlawful activities either outside the polling station or inside the polling station as their activities are recorded in the videograph and they cannot escape the clutches of law.
